YS Jagan To Inspire Confidence In YSRCP Cadre

Key Meeting On June 19

Tadepalli, Andhra Pradesh, India, 17.06.2024, 14:52 Time

USPA NEWS - YS Jagan plans to provide clear directives and key suggestions to guide the party's actions moving forward.

YSRCP chief YS Jaganmohan Reddy is taking decisive steps to uplift party cadres left demoralized after their recent election defeat. In a series of strategic moves, Reddy is holding discussions with key party leaders to analyze the results and chart a path forward.

On the 19th of this month, YS Jagan will meet with candidates who contested the Assembly and Lok Sabha elections at his office. This crucial meeting is expected to cover future strategies and responses to rival party attacks. Reddy plans to provide clear directives and key suggestions to guide the party's actions moving forward.

Recently, Jaganmohan Reddy met with MLCs and MPs, urging them not to lose heart. He emphasized that the public will remember the positive contributions of the YSRCP and expressed confidence in the party's recovery. He advised patience, suggesting that after giving the ruling party some time, the YSRCP should launch vigorous efforts for the people.

Also, Jagan Reddy announced plans for a statewide tour to visit those injured in attacks by rival parties, reinforcing his commitment to the party's resilience and community support across the state of Andhra Pradesh.
